

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPOINTMENT)
OF A DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE FOR A)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
JUSTICE MUSEUM AND LEARNING)	NO. 2004-116
CENTER AT THE HISTORIC MARICOPA) COUNTY COURTHOUSE)

Whereas, the Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County desires to develop a Justice Museum and Learning Center at the Historic Maricopa County Courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona, dedicated to educating the public about the Rule of Law, the important roles of law enforcement, public and private lawyers, courts, city/county/state government, the corrections system, and famous cases and events in Arizona legal history, and famous cases and events in Arizona legal history; and

Whereas, a principal objective in the creation and operation of such a facility is that it be privately funded through donations from the public in the spirit of a community project compatible functionally and aesthetically with court programs carried on in the building; and

Whereas, the Code of Judicial Ethics and collateral rules and directives promulgated by the Arizona Supreme Court governing the conduct and behavior of judges and court staff prohibit judicial officers and court employees from direct or indirect involvement in the solicitation and expenditure of donated funds for court-related purposes; and

Whereas, the vision, goals, objectives, and quality of the Justice Museum and Learning Center as contemplated by Court leadership, officials at the ABA Museum of Law (design consultants for the Museum), Maricopa County Government officials, guidelines of the Historical Commission and potential donors requires strong oversight and management in the form of a permanent Development Committee charged with the fund-raising, promotion and operation of the Museum and Learning Center,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Thomas K. Irvine and Gordon M. Griller are appointed to co-chair a Development Committee to secure funds, create work groups, and otherwise advance the construction and programming of a Justice Museum and Learning Center at the Historic Maricopa County Courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Irvine and Mr. Griller are authorized on behalf of the Judicial Branch in Maricopa County to engage in all activities related to the creation and management of this Justice Museum and Learning Center at the Historic Maricopa County Courthouses in Phoenix, Arizona; and

Dated this ____ day of _____, 2004.
